Can teen substance use and abuse be prevented?

TO PREVENT SUBSTANCE USE:

TALK

KEEP BUSY

SET RULES

LISTEN

KNOW YOUR CHILD'S FRIENDS

TALK TO YOUR CHILD early about what

- you expect in his or her behavior toward alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs. If your teen thinks that you will allow substance use, he or she is more likely to try drugs or alcohol.

KEEP YOUR TEEN BUSY with

- meaningful activities, such as sports, church programs, or other groups.

EXPECT YOUR TEEN to follow the

- household rules. Set reasonable consequences for behavior that needs to change, and consistently carry out the consequences.

LISTEN.

KNOW YOUR CHILD'S FRIENDS.

- Having friends who avoid cigarettes, alcohol, and drugs may be your teen's best protection from substance abuse.
